

FLEETCOR Expands Parking Acceptance Network In Brazil

October 4, 2018

Advances STP's Acceptance Network Beyond Toll

PEACHTREE CORNERS, Ga.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 4, 2018-- FLEETCOR Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: FLT), a leading global provider of commercial payments solutions, announced today that the Company signed a contract with Estapar, Brazil's leading parking facilities operator, to install STP's electronic payment system in approximately 600 new parking lot locations. Estapar will begin accepting FLEETCOR's RFID-enabled payments at many of its parking locations around the country.

This agreement will expand STP's parking lot acceptance network to over 1,000 locations nationwide, including malls, hospitals and sports arenas. The Company continues to execute on its strategic transformation "beyond toll" by building out its parking and fuel acceptance networks. Its roughly five million users will now have the added convenience to access a significant number of fueling sites (at Shell and BR gas stations) and parking facilities across Brazil.

"We are delighted to ink this deal with Estapar, and to provide our customers an easier way to pay at locations across Brazil," said Ron Clarke, FLEETCOR Chairman and CEO. "We are continuing to progress our efforts to widen STP's electronic payment acceptance network beyond toll, to attract more urban users to our customer base."

The installation at Estapar sites will begin immediately, and is expected to be completed in the first quarter of 2019.
