CLC Lodging, the leader in workforce travel lodging solutions, is rebranding as Corpay Lodging. The transition strengthens the company's alignment with its parent brand, Corpay, a global leader in corporate payments, while reaffirming its commitment to providing the most comprehensive and cost-effective lodging programs in the industry.

With over 48 years of industry experience, CLC Lodging has built a trusted reputation as the go-to lodging partner for businesses managing workforce travel. This rebrand honors that legacy while expanding the capabilities available to customers.

"Our evolution into Corpay Lodging reflects not only our strong connection to Corpay's suite of financial solutions but also our ongoing mission to innovate and simplify workforce travel management," said Ryan Guthrie, Corpay Group President, Lodging. "This rebrand represents an exciting step forward, allowing us to enhance our offerings and continue delivering the exceptional savings, control, and convenience our customers expect."

In addition to workforce lodging, customers can also explore Corpay's broader suite of financial solutions, including vehicle payments, cross-border payments, AP automation, and corporate cards, providing businesses with even greater flexibility and control over their travel and operational expenses. In addition to their trusted lodging solutions, businesses managing workforce travel can benefit from additional financial offerings that simplify payment processes, improve expense tracking, and drive operational efficiencies.

"As Corpay Lodging, we are delivering more than just lodging solutions—we are enhancing the way companies manage and pay for workforce travel and business operations," said Mike Jeffrey, Chief Revenue Officer, Corpay, Inc. "Our full range of payment capabilities help businesses reduce administrative burdens, optimize travel budgets, and gain deeper visibility and control over their lodging and overall operating costs."

As part of the rebrand, Corpay Lodging will soon be introducing a series of updates, including:

- A Redesigned Website and Mobile App – Featuring an improved user experience and expanded booking capabilities like richer hotel images on the mobile app.
- An Expanded Hotel Network – Providing even more hotel options in more places to accommodate workforce travel needs.
- Enhanced Rewards and Additional Payment Solutions – Streamlining business and travel expenses and additional payment solution offerings.

For hotel partners, this rebrand opens the door to even greater opportunities, connecting them with Corpay's expanding base of over 800,000 corporate clients. As a valued supplier in Corpay's comprehensive payment ecosystem, hotels can attract more corporate business, streamline payments with recently released virtual credit card solutions for faster check-ins, and boost bookings. With Corpay managing $3.5 Billion of annual global business accommodation spend, we're not just a player in the travel space—we're a powerhouse driving smarter, more efficient lodging solutions.

While the company's branding will change, its core mission remains the same: to help businesses simplify lodging management, reduce costs, and optimize workforce travel.
