Corpay Cross-Border Named the Official FX Partner of New Zealand Football

August 20, 2025

Providing access to currency risk management and cross-border payments solutions

TORONTO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 20, 2025-- Corpay, Inc.*, (NYSE: CPAY) a global leader in corporate payments, is pleased to announce that Corpay's Cross-Border business has entered into an agreement with New Zealand Football to become their Official Foreign Exchange (FX) Partner.

Through this partnership, New Zealand Football will be able to utilise Corpay Cross Border's innovative solutions to help mitigate foreign exchange exposure from their day-to-day business needs. Additionally, Corpay Cross-Border's award-winning platform will enable them to manage their global payments from a single point of access.

"Corpay Cross-Border would like to congratulate New Zealand Football and the All Whites for qualifying to compete at the 2026 FIFA World Cup," said Brad Loder, Chief Marketing Officer, Corpay Cross-Border Solutions. "With our strong focus on growing the Corpay brand, as well as our corporate payments and currency risk management business in New Zealand, we look forward to working with New Zealand Football as their Official FX Partner in their pursuit of the World Cup and for many years to come."

"As we grow and mature as an organisation, we need to continue to evaluate the way we do business internationally, and partnerships such as this, with a major financial organisation, illustrate how we are now thinking on a global scale," said Andrew Pragnell, CEO at New Zealand Football. "It is great to partner with Corpay at a really exciting time for football, where the game is only going from strength to strength at all levels in Aotearoa New Zealand."
