Corpay Lodging Broadens Global Hotel Access for U.S. Companies Managing Workforce Travel

January 27, 2026

WICHITA, Kan.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 27, 2026-- Corpay Lodging, a Corpay company (NYSE: CPAY) and leader in workforce travel solutions, announced today that it is expanding availability of its now 2 million-hotel global network to U.S.-based companies and significantly enhancing its workforce travel program options. The expanded international booking capabilities are available on a newly launched and user-friendly platform designed for workforce travelers. The new solution gives businesses greater access, visibility, and control over their lodging programs while helping them save time and money across their travel operations.

US-based companies can now leverage Corpay Lodging's 2 million–property global hotel network, along with an easy-to-use platform built specifically for workforce travelers. By combining global reach with a streamlined interface, Corpay Lodging is enabling companies to manage travel programs with improved visibility, control, and consistency across both domestic and international operations.

"Corpay Lodging is expanding our service offerings to better support our customers anywhere in the world—both in and out of the U.S.," said Ryan Guthrie, Group President of Lodging at Corpay. "We're thrilled to grow the reach of our lodging network globally while strengthening our position as America's workforce lodging leader. This expansion reflects our commitment to helping companies control costs, simplify travel, and support their teams wherever they go."

Building on this expanded global access, the company has also introduced new platform capabilities that:

- Help businesses streamline travel operations and reduce administrative time
- Provide real-time reporting and visibility into travel spend
- Simplify bookings, payments, and reporting
- Recoup cancellation fees with dedicated cancellation recovery whenever possible

Together, these features help companies cut complexity, improve accuracy, and gain the visibility they need to manage lodging spend at scale.

Travelers will also benefit from a more efficient lodging experience. Features such as reservation checks and seamless company billing help guests check-in quickly and get the rest they need.

"Corpay Lodging helps customers save time and money by unifying all their lodging management tools in one place," said Chris Kramer, Chief Product Officer for Corpay Lodging. "With global hotel access, seamless billing, real-time insights, and a modern UX, we enable companies to reduce costs while eliminating the manual work that slows down workforce travel operations.* "
